Fix the leaky pipeline

This career-building program offers female PhD students, postdocs and young scientists the opportunity to reflect on their professional situations, develop a strategy for embarking or continuing on their career paths, receive further training, and extend their personal and scientific networks. The core elements of the project are: customized further education, work in peer groups, inter-institutional cooperation, and an interdisciplinary network.

The aim, actively supported by the ETH-Domain, is to support women in their scientific careers and in the process to fix the “leaky pipeline” of women in science.

Program concept

The program starts with this Information event. In spring 2013 coaching groups and courses will be offered until spring 2014. A further networking event is planned for fall 2014.

Participation in part of the program is possible.
